

To Gentlemen

County News.

BIRDPORT.

Who are desirous of placing their Fall orders, we would state that our store is now finished, and our entire stock of

Suitings and Overcoatings

On exhibition. Our new stock of

Fine Woolens

—FOR—

CUSTOM WORK

Is quite twice as large as we have heretofore carried, and will be found to contain

NOVELTIES

For fine work never before shown in this city and fully equal to our growing trade we would suggest that an

Early Call

Is admirable, as favorite styles are being closed daily.

We shall strive to improve in the

Elegance of our Garments

so as to compare favorably with the improvements in our place of business.

Turk & Bro.,

The Leading Clothiers,

156 and 158 College Street,

BURLINGTON, VT.

40-w13

BOOKS! BOOKS!

Having selected our Fall Stock of Sets with great care, we are now prepared to furnish STANDARD AUTHORS in the MOST DESIRABLE EDITIONS at the following very low prices:

DICKENS' COMPLETE WORKS, 15 Volumes, Illustrated Popular Edition, $5.

SCOTT'S COMPLETE WORKS, 12 Volumes, Popular Illustrated Edition, $7.50. Same, Lit. Agency Edition, $9.

THACKERAY'S COMPLETE WORKS, 11 Volumes, Popular Illustrated Edition, $7.50, same University Edition $12.

MACAULAY'S HISTORY OF ENGLAND, 5 Volumes, 12mo., Cloth, $1.75 per set.

HUME'S HISTORY OF ENGLAND, 3 Volumes, $2.50.

RAUTLINSON'S ANCIENT MONARCHIES, 5 Volumes, $4.50.

CARLYLE'S WORKS, 10 Volumes, Illustrated University Edition, $12.

IRVING'S WORKS, 6 Vols. 12mo., $5.

GEORGE ELIOT'S WORKS, 6 Volumes, Five-side Edition, $5.

Any of the above excepting Macaulay delivered Express Paid. THEY ARE BARGAINS.

There are a great many inferior editions in the market printed upon Newspaper stock, etc., and sold at less than the price here quoted. The sets advertised in this list are first class in every particular.

S. Huntington & Co.,

Booksellers, Stationers, and Manufacturers of Blank Books,

BURLINGTON, — VT.

40

MACHINE SHOP

—AND—

FOUNDRY.

The undersigned would respectfully announce to his friends and patrons that he has his Shop and Foundry again in his possession, and is now ready to do any and all kinds of work in his line with

Promptness and Despatch.

With thanks for your very liberal patronage in the past, and soliciting a continuance of the same, I remain

Yours truly,

H. T. LANGWORTHY.

P. S. I would say that I have a few side hill and Swivel Plows for sale, which I would close out for cash cheap.

44

EAST MIDDLEBURY.

Mrs. H. Persons and son have left here for Nebraska.

E. Baker has moved into J. Grant's and Frank Dudley into Mrs. Dudley's house. Considerable plowing has been done in this vicinity since the first fall of snow.

J. Hayes has rented his shop to E. Baker and has gone to work near Worcester, Mass.

The water in the river was very high last week and made a small break in the forge dam.

A Thanksgiving ball is advertised to take place at the Glen House on the evening of the 25th.

J. J. Manney, who has been ill for several weeks at his home here with a bronchial difficulty, is improving.

The remains of Mrs. Turner Boardman were interred in Prospect cemetery last week. She died at Brandon, but was for years a resident of this vicinity.

Mrs. Caroline S. Boardman has returned from Constable, N. Y., where she had spent the season with her daughter-in-law, and is now at her home on South street.

LINCOLN.

Miss Mabel Johnson is home for a short visit. She will return to Warren to attend school another term.

There is a good deal of sickness in town. W. E. Banks has been quite sick, but is better. Benj. Banks is also improving. Ed. Thompson is very sick.

Miss Celia Lawrence died very suddenly last week, and was buried on Tuesday.

Col. Copeland will deliver the third lecture in the course on Dec. 15.

Rev. S. Gardner and wife have gone to New York city to spend the winter.

C. P. Abernethy has sold a house and lot on Maple street to Farris Stokes.

The Bristol Manufacturing Co. have their new dry house nearly completed.

M. P. Varney is building an addition to the house on Church street which he sold to Cleaves Crane.

Dennis Bissonette has been appointed janitor of the graded school, in place of Lewis Bush, resigned.

The entertainment given by the Boston Opera Co., last week, was one of the best we have had here this season.

Thanksgiving services at the Baptist church on Thursday evening; preaching by the pastor, Rev. P. B. Strong.

Mrs. Marietta Eastman has been quite sick for a week past, but is now improving. Horace Gladling and Hattie Ryan are getting better.

Jonathan Clark was sexton in the village cemetery 25 years, to 1869; Simeon Chase, 12 years, to 1881, and H. P. Sherwin is the present official in charge.

Alfred Prince, a colored gentleman from Charlotte was brought before Justice W. E. Dunshee, Monday, on complaint of Grand Juror Sherwin, and fined $5 and costs for imbibing too much aqua-fortis water. He disclosed on E. W. Gage, who was fined $10 and costs; ap-pealed.

Your correspondent took a trip over the Bristol and New Haven railroad the other day as supercargo of a load of furniture. He must say that the road is sadly in need of repairs. It is understood that the chairman of the railroad committee is now in the West buying new rolling stock.

—CORNWALL.

J. G. Hinds of Pittsford has secured the services of Miss Maria Douglas for the coming term in his district.

—WEST CORNWALL.

Mrs. Anna Sanford is in very poor health.

Miss Mattie Banks has returned to her home in Addison.

Mr. Klock of Middlebury will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday.

It is very warm pleasant weather for the time of year; but the roads are bad and muddy.

The Ladies' Sewing society will meet with Mrs. Elizur Peck on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 1.

The body of Darwin B. Hill, formerly of this place, but later of Middlebury, was brought to this place on Saturday afternoon and interred in the new cemetery. Mr. Hill was the only child of the late Josephus Hill of this place and his wife Caroline (Munger) Hill. His age was nearly forty years. Over two years ago he had pneumonia and he never fully recovered from that, and it was soon evident that consumption had another victim. For weeks his death has been hourly expected and on Thursday morning the end came. He leaves a wife to mourn him and many friends to regret that a life so full of promise should be so short. The heartfelt sympathy of all is with the bereaved wife.

—LEICESTER.

The two lime kilns get out about 140 barrels of lime a day.

Last week pulp teams heavily loaded came in from Salisbury to the depot on runners.

Geo. Swington is said to be the greatest land-owner in town; he has 600 acres.

Dr. Case Derby, who was formerly in Bridport, has recently sold his store to Charles Hall.

The town house is undergoing repairs by being sealed up inside and receiving a good painting.

Bullock road is all under water. The meadows above are flooded and the road is impassable.

The meetings which Rev. Mr. Heath of West Salisbury has been holding in district No. 5 have been discontinued on account of bad going.

Miss Elsie M. Barker, who was telegraph operator at the Lake Dunmore House the past season, is now spending several weeks in Ripton among her friends.

Willie Wolcott, son of Napoleon Wolcott, is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism, but is reported better. Mrs. Rollin Gile is very sick with cataleptic fits induced by overwork, but it is hoped that the careful nursing that she is receiving will bring her out after a time. Mrs. Jerry Quinn has had a severe attack of black diphtheria, but is also reported better.

The audience at the Congregational church on Sunday was quite small owing to the bad travelling, as several that we know of turned around and retraced their steps after starting out; but those present had an excellent sermon to young people from Rev. S. F. Calhoun by request of the Y. M. C. A. of the State.

Services have been held in the Congregational church here as usual this season.

Several hundred bushels of apples have been delivered at Chipman's Point within the last ten days, and a large number were put on board the cars by those living nearer the railroad and delivered to the same boat at Larrabee's Point, from whence they are to be taken to New York. H. G. Hibbard and H. E. Hack have attended to the purchase of this fruit for dealers in New York city.

(Latest.)

The sick spoken of last week are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Myatt are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter.

The audience was of fair proportions at the Congregational church on Sunday last.

Mrs. Rev. S. F. Calhoun has returned from her recent visit among friends in Massachusetts.

Thanksgiving services will be held on that day at the Congregational church by Rev. Mr. Calhoun at the usual hour.

Mrs. A. H. Irving of Philadelphia is in town, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Overhiser. Mr. Irving is expected in a few weeks.

Mrs. Walter Weller, formerly Miss Mary Johns, is home from Washington Territory, and visiting friends.

The venerable Mrs. Jonas Smith of Addison, now in her 79th year, is quite feeble, at the residence of Mrs. Pond in Addison.

The band-stand is being completed in the park. It is patterned after the one in Burlington. Charles Laubeuf is architect and builder.

Mr. Parsons has had charge of the union meetings since Mr. Mills closed his services, Wednesday. He is an earnest exhorter.

Station Agent Simonds is in receipt of letters from his son assuring him that the party had a pleasant trip and arrived at Los Angeles all right.

Hitching posts, similar to those in front of the Gaines block, are ready to be placed from the block to Greene street. It will be a great improvement.

The subject is not a new one, by any means, but public attention has been called to an economic enlargement of the town hall, by adding twenty or thirty feet to the rear.

The sermon by Rev. Mr. Robertson, Sunday morning, was one of his best.

It was on a part of the 14th verse of Genesis xviii. There was a full attendance and earnest attention.

Revival meetings during the present week. There was a largely attended union meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening, and Saturday afternoon meeting for the children.

—HANCOCK.

Miss Maud Maxham is visiting in Middlebury.

A new carpet has been put down in the Union church.

C. M. Robbins has begun his winter's business—buying furs.

Mrs. J. C. Church has returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital.

During the recent rains a portion of Herk's mill-dam went out—for the third time within a year.

The wild geese caught by Hiram Perry and his neighbor are doing well. He intends to keep them.

—PANTON.

Mud and snow, rain and mud are about the component parts of terra firma for this month.

Lyman Kent returned last Wednesday from the West, where he has been employed for several years.

Dell Carpenter and his bride, formerly Miss Jennie Harris, are spending a few days at her father's, Fayette Harris.

Dime festivals for the benefit of the pastor of the M. E. church are to be held occasionally during the coming winter.

One held at the church recently netted about twenty dollars we understand.

Mrs. John Holecomb died at the residence of George Merrill on Saturday, Nov. 13, after a short illness, and was buried the following Monday, Rev. J. S. Mott officiating. Her husband, John Holecomb, started for California Nov. 3, and had barely arrived at his destination at the time of his wife's death.

—WEST FERRISBURGH.

Mrs. Ira Brydia has returned from a few weeks' visit at her father's, Rev. P. C. Dayton, at Fair Haven.

The fifteenth anniversary of the wed-ding of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Hatch is to be celebrated at their residence this Tuesday evening.

George Kellogg has completed a dock at his place 20x40 feet, for the accommoda-tion of the small craft that frequent his bay during the summer months.

Fred Allen has been renovating a shed that was built more than fifty years ago, the frame being laid out at that time by Eliud Graves, now more than 80 years old. The roof has been raised and a few box-stalls enclosed, making a substantial and convenient structure.

—WHITING.

Mrs. J. E. Parker is sick with malarial fever.

Will Foster is clerking for F. D. Neelam.

Mrs. E. D. Peck has returned to Brandon for the winter.

Carroll Hubbard has a valuable mare sick with "pink-eye."

Tons of poultry are being shipped from this station to the Boston market.

A. A. Pond shipped another carload of cows and fat sheep to Boston market last week.